Other than the xxx and the password - this screen must be typed in EXACTLY as shown - this includes the capital S while the rest is lowercase, the slashes (not backslashes), the lack of spaces, etc.

xxx in the two places above, must be replaced by your individual ID information (get this information from the grades.cs.umd.edu server)

the password shown hidden above, must be replaced by your individual password (get this information from the grades.cs.umd.edu server)

Do not forget to set the Connection Type to extssh -- it is not the default
